Dear Sir,

Might a stranger who is greatly interested in "origins" ask you to favour him with your esteemed opinion upon the following:

- (A) Has Buddhism in any way affected the New Testament Scriptures?
  - (B) Is there any valid historical evidence for its having influenced the West in early times?
  - (C) Is the affirmation of Stix (1900) and van den Bugh van Eysinga (1904) as to a borrowing by Christianity of any value?
- I should be very much aided if you would graciously answer the foregoing questions.

Thanking you in anticipation of a reply

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours respectfully

W H Howard Nash
